Milwaukee County Clerk Christenson and Elections Director Henry to Brief Media on What to Expect on Election Night

Waukesha County Clerk Meg Wartman and Wisconsin Election Commission Administrator Meagan Wolfe will also Speak

MILWAUKEE – Milwaukee County Clerk George Christenson and Elections Director Julietta Henry will detail their plans for receiving, compiling and reporting out election results from the 19 municipalities within Milwaukee county in an online media briefing Monday at 1:00pm.

Clerk Christenson and Elections Director Henry will explain the process and procedures in place in Milwaukee County to ensure all ballots are accurately tallied at the municipal level - including the process for ballots cast at polling sites and those cast absentee.

Christenson and Henry will preview the expected timeline for receiving results from Milwaukee County's 19 municipalities and the procedures for how results are reported to the public. This will include options for viewing results in-person or online. They will also explain current measures to protect public health and safety at the Milwaukee County Courthouse for those media and election observers choose to come to the Courthouse on Election Night.

Waukesha County Clerk Meg Wartman will also be present to explain the process and procedures in place in Waukesha County to gather results from Waukesha County's 37 municipalities and ensure votes are accurately tallied and reported to the public.

Wisconsin Elections Commission Administrator Meagan Wolfe will speak about top reminders for voters as they head to the polls on election day. Administrator Wolfe will also talk about voter participation numbers from a statewide perspective as well as unofficial results reporting and how official results of an election are certified.
